Dorothy Fassel
1923 - 1999

The Anaheim Angels lost a true friend during the off-season when Dorothy Fassel passed away last Nov 24. The 76-year-old Fassel handled the Angels switchboard duties from Oct. 1, 1976 thru May 31, 1993. More than tending to her responsibilities, Fassel was a compassionate, caring and sensitive lady who befriended all within the organization. She and her husband Bud were married more than 50 years, prior to his death in a 1992 auto accident. Dorothy is survived by daughters Debbie and Linda, son Jim, 12 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She enriched us all and will be greatly missed.

Media Information Guidelines

Anaheim Angels
Communications Department
2000 Gene Autry Way
Anaheim, CA 92806
(714) 940-2014
FAX: (714) 940-2205

On behalf of Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) and the Anaheim Angels Baseball Club, welcome to the 2000 Major League Baseball (MLB) season at Edison International Field of Anaheim. Our goal is to make your job covering the Anaheim Angels as pleasant as possible.

ADMISSION TO EDISON FIELD: Enter through the Media Entrance, located at Home Plate Gate between Gates 1 and 2. The Media Entrance, including Media Will Call, opens two and one-half hours prior to gametime.

CREDENTIALS: To obtain credentials, a request must be made on company letterhead and sent (via mail or fax) to the Angels Communications Department. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies. Requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of the day of the game, or by 2:00 p.m. Friday, for Saturday and Sunday contests. Credentials must be picked up at the Media Entrance located at Home Plate Gate. No credentials will be mailed. It is imperative that season credential holders notify the Angels communications staff of their intentions to cover a contest in order to reserve space in the pressbox. ALL CREDENTIALS ARE NON-TRANSFERABLE AND ANY UNAUTHORIZED USE WILL SUBJECT BEARER TO EJECTION FROM EDISON FIELD AND CONFISCATION OF CREDENTIAL.

PARKING: Media must enter Edison Field through the Orangewood VIP/Bus entrance and park in designated media parking, located between Home Plate Gate and Gate 2. NO EXCEPTIONS. Parking is free of charge with valid credentials. If attending on a game-by-game basis, arrangements must be made with the Angels Communications Department at least 24 hours in advance of the day of the game. If arrangements are not made, a parking fee may be charged and no refunds can be given.

PHOTOGRAPHY: Photo credentials are issued in the same manner as other credentials. All photographers will work from assigned locations. Due to limited photo locations, it is impossible to allow freelance photographers access unless assigned to shoot for a specific story or project.

PRESSBOX: Space in the Angels Pressbox is available for accredited members of the media, on assignment only. The lower level is reserved for writers and broadcast reporters, while the upper level is for live coverage by television and radio networks. Telephones and SportsTicker News Service are also available. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working pressbox atmosphere, and professional courtesy applies in all instances. Complete game notes containing statistical information, press releases, roster sheets, and minor league information will be available. Please ask a Communications Representative for any additional information you may need. Facsimile service is available by contacting the Angels Communications Department prior to game time.

INTERVIEWS: Requests for interviews needing advance preparation or special accommodation by an Angels player or staff member are to be directed to the Angels Communications Department. This includes all live television interviews for pre- and post-game, as well as all on-field requests during batting practice.

CLUBHOUSES: The Angels clubhouse is open up to one hour prior to game time. Both clubhouse will also be open 10 minutes upon the conclusion of the game. The visiting clubhouse is governed by the visiting club. The Umpires Dressing Room is off-limits to the media. If a comment or interpretation from the umpire crew chief is needed, a pool reporter may be assigned.

PRE-GAME PROCEDURES: Prior to most games, the Angels will take batting practice approximately two and one-half hours prior to game time.

PRESS DINING ROOM: Prior to each home game media with season, MLB, or single-game credentials are welcome to dine in the Anaheim Angels Press Dining Room. There will be a $5.00 fee charged for each meal served in the dining room with proceeds being donated to local charities. Refreshments are also available during the game through the seventh inning free of charge. Dining room usage is limited to those presenting proper credentials. It is impossible to accommodate family members, friends, or guests. NO ONE UNDER 18 years of age will be permitted into the dining room. As a professional courtesy, we ask that you dress in appropriate business attire. NO THONG SANDALS OR CUT-OFF SHORTS ARE ALLOWED. Any abuse of these privileges will cause forfeiture of credentials.

STATISTICIAN SERVICES: Statisticians may be provided to assist television and radio broadcasters by contacting the Angels Communications Department at (714) 940-2014. These services must be arranged in advance, and once made, the statistician will be compensated whether or not used.

TELEPHONES: As a courtesy, the Angels provide a pressbox telephone for transferring incoming calls to the main pressbox number. This phone line is for incoming calls only. If a telephone is not assigned to your company, all other phones will need a calling/credit card in order to place a call. Telephones for the working media should be ordered by contacting the Angels Communications Department at (714) 940-2014. An invoice will be sent directly to you for all telephone connection charges incurred. Anaheim Sports, Inc. and the Anaheim Angels will not be responsible for connection costs.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: ANY MEMBER OF THE MEDIA REQUESTING AUTOGRAPHS WHILE CREDENTIALED WILL HAVE PRESS ACCESS REVOKED.

We hope these guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the Anaheim Angels and Major League Baseball at Edison International Field of Anaheim. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you need additional assistance. We look forward to working with you and let's Play Ball!

Sincerely,

Tim Mead

Anaheim Sports, Inc.

Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) is the business unit responsible for the management and operation of The Walt Disney Company's sports ventures. ASI's main responsibility is overseeing the operation of Major League Baseball's Anaheim Angels and the National Hockey League's Mighty Ducks of Anaheim, as well as Edison International Field of Anaheim (the home of the Anaheim Angels) and Disney ICE (the official practice facility of the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim).

The business unit was originally formed when The Walt Disney Company was awarded an NHL franchise which first began play at the start of the 1993-94 season. ASI's responsibilities grew when The Walt Disney Company and Angels' owner Gene Autry came to an agreement which allowed Disney to purchase a 25 percent interest in the baseball team while serving as managing general partner. The transfer of management and part-ownership was made official on May 15, 1996. Following Autry's death on Oct. 2, 1998, Disney purchased the remaining interest in the ballclub in a transaction that was finalized March 31, 1999.

Disney unveiled a new Angels logo and team uniform, Nov. 19, 1996. At the same time, the club officially changed its name from the California Angels to the Anaheim Angels.

In 1996, ASI and the City of Anaheim agreed on a stadium renovation plan that resulted in the new Edison International Field of Anaheim, transforming Anaheim Stadium from a football-friendly stadium to a baseball ballpark which was unveiled on March 27, 1998. In the transformation, the existing outfield seats were removed and replaced to create a more traditional open-air ambience. New luxury suites were added and all theatre-style seats in the stadium were replaced.

Anaheim Sports, Inc.

As part of The Walt Disney Company, ASI is based in Anaheim, Calif. and operates as a stand-alone business. Part of the long-term vision of ASI is to create an environment where the two teams are a vital part of the community in which they are located. To that end, both teams have developed extensive community relations efforts throughout Anaheim and Orange County, making a major commitment toward becoming an important asset to the community.

The crown jewels of ASI's commitment to the community are the organization's official charities, "Angels Care" and "Mighty Ducks Care", funds of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation.

Angels Care and Mighty Ducks Care focus primarily on children's programs to accommodate the diverse needs throughout Southern California. The Foundation offers incentives in the form of matching dollars to increase contributions from the public and corporate world for charitable purposes. Since their inception, Angels Care and Mighty Ducks Care have raised nearly five million dollars.

The Walt Disney Company has also launched Disney GOALS, a non-profit organization that is devoted to removing the barriers that prevent less privileged children from freely enjoying organized sports, accessing quality education and participating in community service projects. Mighty Ducks players and coaches volunteer their time to GOALS, which stands for "Growth Opportunities through Athletics, Learning and Service." GOALS creates after-school and weekend programs for youth structured around the team sport of hockey.

Another objective of ASI is to successfully blend sports and entertainment, placing an emphasis on the spectator experience. In addition to fielding competitive and successful teams, ASI aims to provide a total entertainment experience to all guests attending events at Edison Field and the Arrowhead Pond. The ultimate goal of ASI is for every fan who attends an event to be 100 percent entertained.

Headquartered in Burbank, Calif., The Walt Disney Company has grown to include over 75,000 employees, all of whom help to create, maintain and ensure the integrity of the Disney name.

Michael Eisner

Chairman & CEO, The Walt Disney Company

Soon after Michael D. Eisner joined The Walt Disney Company in 1984 as Chairman and CEO, he saw the need for the company to diversify, with emphasis on other entertainment businesses near its U.S. theme parks in California and Florida.

12 years later, Disney became general partner of the Anaheim Angels baseball team, one of Disneyland's neighbors. The company set out to rebuild the team with new players, new uniforms and a state-of-the-art ballpark.

Today, after extensive renovation, Edison International Field of Anaheim, reconfigured as a baseball-only stadium, has become one of the game's most fan-friendly, up-to-date facilities. The renovation was designed by architects Robert A.M. Stern of New York and HOK Sports Facilities Group of Kansas City, Mo., and directed by Walt Disney Imagineering.

Ownership of the Angels and the National Hockey League's (NHL) Mighty Ducks of Anaheim has greatly increased Disney's participation in sports during Eisner's tenure. In addition, Walt Disney World in Florida has evolved into a sports mecca with the opening of Disney's Wide World of Sports complex in 1997.

The 200-acre facility is the national headquarters for the Amateur Athletic Union and includes a 7,500-seat stadium, 5,000-seat field house, tennis courts, running tracks and training & fitness facilities. It serves as the spring training site for the Atlanta Braves and is the headquarters and training facility for the Harlem Globetrotters.

Walt Disney World is home to six championship 18-hole golf courses. The Walt Disney World/National Car Rental Golf Classic has been held there annually since 1973. Additionally, the resort is host to the annual Walt Disney World Marathon held each January, presented by Foot Locker.

In January 2000, the Walt Disney World Speedway, a one-mile race course, hosted the fifth annual Indy 200 at Walt Disney World presented by Delphi. In April, Walt Disney's Wide World of Sports will host the U.S. Men's Clay Court Championships sponsored by 100% Columbian Coffee.

Disney TV subsidiaries also place a strong emphasis on sports. ABC, Inc., recently renewed its rights to Monday Night Football -- TV's longest-running and most successful sports program -- through the year 2005. In 1999, the network televised the first NCAA national championship football game, a contest which guaranteed for the first time that the two top-ranked teams faced each other in post-season play.

ABC includes several networks, including ESPN, the worldwide leader in sports programming, which reaches 73 million homes. All ESPN networks and services are 80 percent owned by ABC in partnership with the Hearst Corp.

Together with ABC Sports, ESPN has extended long-term program agreements with major league baseball and top collegiate football conferences. 2000 is the 13th year in which ESPN has aired National Football League games on Sunday nights, and for the third year it will carry the entire Sunday night schedule. It has also renewed contracts with the PGA, the British Open and U.S. Figure Skating.

ESPN also owns Classic Sports Network, which shows footage of many of the best-remembered games in sports history. Along with ESPN2 and ESPN NEWS, ESPN International reaches 150 million households in more than 150 countries and territories, and in 20 languages. ESPN Enterprises also has launched ESPN Sports Zone, one of the foremost content sites on the Internet.

The first ESPN Zone, a restaurant and entertainment center, opened in Baltimore in June 1998, with additional Zones opening in Chicago and New York in summer, 1999. ESPN Magazine hit the newsstands in spring 1998.

Eisner's leadership has helped revitalize all areas of Disney. In addition to its sports teams and ABC, Inc., the company owns or has major ownership positions in Touchstone, Hollywood and Miramax Pictures, Mammoth Records, Lyric Street Records, A&E, The History Channel, Lifetime Television, the E! Channel and Hyperion Books.

Hyperion has produced numerous books about sports and sports personalities. Among these are a new line of ESPN books starting with the ESPN Information Please Sports Almanac, Dan Obrien's Ultimate Workout Book and a baseball book, Memories of Summer by Roger Kahn.

In a joint venture with the City of Anaheim, Disney created Disney ICE, a community center that houses two ice rinks. The 90,000-square foot building is home to the Disney GOALS non-profit program, which creates after-school and weekend programs for underprivileged children, emphasizing the team sport of hockey. Disney GOALS eventually will go nationwide, creating positive alternatives for youngsters in some of our nation's most troubled neighborhoods.

In addition to providing a home for Disney GOALS, the facility is the training camp site and practice rink for the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim.

In the last decade, Disney's motion picture studios have produced such films as Armageddon, Phenomenon, Ransom, Con Air, The English Patient, 101 Dalmations and Flubber, among others. In addition, the company has extended its reputation as the world's foremost creator of animated films including The Lion King, Aladdin, Beauty and the Beast, Pocahontas, Toy Story, Toy Story 2, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, The Little Mermaid, Hercules, Mulan, A Bug's Life and Tarzan.

Disney entered the live theater business with its smash hits "Beauty and the Beast" and the sell-out Broadway production of "The Lion King."

The creation and popularity of Disney Vacation Clubs brought about the Disney Cruise Line which began carrying passengers for its home in Port Canaveral, Fla. in the summer of 1998.

Eisner has overseen the creation of the enormously popular Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park and Disney's Animal Kingdom which opened to capacity crowds in April, 1998 at Walt Disney World and the construction of Disneyland Paris, now Europe's most popular paid vacation destination. Work is under way on four new theme parks: Disney's California Adventure adjacent to Disneyland, Tokyo DisneySea near Tokyo Disneyland, a second gate near Disneyland Paris and a brand new theme park in Hong Kong.

Before joining Disney, Eisner held senior management positions with ABC-TV and later was President and Chief Operating Officer of Paramount Pictures. A graduate of Denison University, he grew up in New York City. Eisner and his wife, Jane, are the parents of three sons – Breck, Eric and Anders

Tony Tavares

President

Tony Tavares was named as the first-ever president of Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) on March 1, 1993, He is responsible for the overall team operation of MLB's Anaheim Angels and the NHL's Mighty Ducks of Anaheim.

In addition to bringing over 20 years' experience as a facilities management professional to Anaheim Sports, Inc., Tavares also possesses strong leadership skills. His management style is highlighted by a keen attention to detail — Tavares closely monitors every aspect of the Angels operation, from player personnel moves to game operations.

Tavares spearheaded the move to renovate Anaheim Stadium from a multi-purpose facility to a baseball only stadium to give "guests" the feeling of traditional baseball surroundings. He initiated the ballclub's name change, along with a new logo, colors and uniforms in an effort to increase the Angels visibility on a national scale.

He is a member of the American League Board of Directors, Major League Baseball Enterprises Board of Directors and Major League Baseball Realignment Committee.

Committed to putting a quality product on the field, ASI continues to assemble a competitive team that gives 100 percent every night for fans attending Angels games at Edison International Field of Anaheim.

"We're in the business of sports, and we want to give our fans their money's worth," said Tavares. "We are always looking to for new ways to improve our team on the field of play. We want every fan who comes to see an Angels game to see quality effort and play by our team. Our goal every year is to compete for a world championship."

Tavares has also been influential off the playing field as Anaheim Sports, Inc. has established itself as a friend of the community. In 1998, Tavares served as honorary chairman of the Black and White Ball, an Angels Care and Mighty Ducks Care event to support the Olive Crest Homes for Abused Children. Angels Care, Mighty Ducks Care and funds of the McCormick Tribune Foundation, granted Olive Crest a check for $560,000 from the event partnership.

Making a personal commitment to the community, Tavares is a member of the Chapman University Board of Governors, the Spine in Sports Foundation and the Executive Leadership Board of the Argyros School of Business & Economics at Chapman University. Tavares was also recognized with a Hispanic Influential Award by the City of Santa Ana in 1998.

Tavares came to Anaheim Sports, Inc. after serving as a consultant with The Walt Disney Company, helping plan the organization's entry into professional hockey. Before that, he spent 11 years with Spectacor Management Group, a major facilities management company, rising to the position of president and chief executive officer.

Tavares has held several senior management positions, directing the activities of the Centrum in Worcester, Mass., the Providence (R.I.) Civic Center, New Haven (CT) Veterans Memorial Coliseum and the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Uniondale, N.Y.

Though born in Fall River, Mass., (10/17/49) Tavares grew up in Bristol, R.I., and holds a bachelor of science degree in accounting from Roger Williams College. He is a member of the International Association of Auditorium Managers.

Tavares and his wife, Elizabeth, have three children. They have two daughters, Sheila and Kristen and one son, Mark. The family resides in Villa Park.

Bill Stoneman

Vice President and General Manager

Bill Stoneman enters his first season as vice president/general manager of the Angels. He becomes the ninth general manager in Angels' history and is responsible for the overall baseball operations of the club, including player personnel, scouting and player development. Stoneman was appointed to his current position, Nov. 1, 1999. He previously served as Vice President, Baseball Operations for the Montreal Expos, with financial and administrative responsibilities for all baseball operations aspects.

A native of Oak Park, IL, Stoneman pitched for eight seasons in the major leagues, compliling a 54-85 record with 46 complete games, 15 shutouts, five saves and a 4.08 ERA in 245 games (170 starts). He began his professional career in 1966 and appeared in the major leagues with the Chicago Cubs (1967-68), Montreal (1969-73) and California (1974). Stoneman was selected to the 1972 National League All-Star team, pitching two innings at the Mid-Summer Classic in Atlanta.

Stoneman, who was the 10th selection by Montreal from Chicago in the 1968 expansion draft, pitched two no-hitters for the Expos. He no-hit the Philadelphia Phillies at Connie Mack Stadium, April 17, 1969 (7-0 score), and the New York Mets at Jarry Park, Oct. 2, 1972 (7-0 score). The first no-hitter came 10 days after the Expos made their debut. Stoneman had his contract sold to the Angels' April 4, 1974, and posted a 1-8 record and 6.14 ERA in 13 games (11 starts) with California, before retiring as a player during that season.

Following his retirement from baseball in 1974, Stoneman joined Royal Trust, a financial institution, first working in Montreal, and then in Toronto. He returned to baseball Nov. 14, 1983, joining the Expos as Assistant to the President. Stoneman was then appointed Vice President, Baseball Adminstration, Sept. 8, 1984.

Raised in West Covina, CA, Stoneman attended Mount San Antonio Junior College in Walnut, CA. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Idaho and a Master's degree in Education from the University of Oklahoma. Stoneman was inducted to the University of Idaho Alumni Hall of Fame in Feb., 1998.

Milhouse's current professional experience includes his private practice in Internal Medicine and Athletic Medicine at the Kerlan Jobe Orthopaedic Clinic in Anaheim, CA and private practice in Internal Medicine and Sports Medicine in Anaheim Hills, CA.

A native of Detroit, MI, Milhouse received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Michigan in 1976 and Medical Degree from Wayne State University, School of Medicine in 1980. He completed his Medicine/Surgery Internship at St. John's Hospital in Detroit, MI (1980-81) and his Internal Medicine Residency at Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena, CA (1981-84). Milhouse served his Sports Medicine Fellowship at Kerlan Jobe Orthopaedic Clinic in Inglewood, CA (1990-91) and received his Board Certification in Internal Medicine in 1984.

Milhouse, 45 (9/3/54), served as Team Physician for the Los Angeles Rams (1993-95), the University of Southern California (1988-93) and Occidental College (1992-93). He is a current member of the Tournament of Roses, the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Medical Society of Sports Medicine. He and wife Pamela have two sons, Jonathan and Alex. The family resides in Yorba Linda.

Medical Glossary

Abscess — An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
Anaphylactic Shock — Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.
Anterior Compartment Syndrome — Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) — A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Anti-Inflammatory — Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.
Arteriogram — A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.
Arthrogram — X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
Arthroscope — An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.
Arthroscopy — A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
Aspiration — The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.
Atrophy — To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
Avascular Necrosis — Death of a part due to lack of circulation.
Avulsion — The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.
Baker's Cyst — Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.
Bone Scan — An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot"on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
Brachial Plexus — Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.
Bursa — A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.
Capsule — An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
CAT Scan — Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.
Cellulitis — Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
Cervical Vertebrae — Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.
Collateral Ligament — on either side of and acting as a radius of movement, a hinge joint, as of the elbow, knee and wrist.
Colles' Fracture — A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.
Concussion — Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
Contusion — An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
Cortical Steroids — Used to suppress joint inflammation.
Costochondral — Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.
Degenerative Joint Disease — Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.
Deltoid Ligament — Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.
Deltoid Muscle — Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.
Disc, Intervertebral — A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.
Dislocation — Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
Dusky — Areas of decreased temperature may indicate arterial compromise and decreased tissue viability.
Eccymosis — Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.
Edema — Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.
Effusion — Accumulation of fluid, or the knee itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.
Electromyogram (EMG) — Test to determine nerve function.
Epicondylitis — Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.
Erythema — Inflammatory redness of the skin.
Exudate — Any fluid that has exuded out of a tissue or its capillaries, specifically because of injury or inflammation.
Fracture — Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.
Gadolinium MRI — The chemical gadolinium is injected into the joint being studied to enhance the diagnosis image of the structures under investigation.
Grade One Injury — A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or confused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.
Grade Two Injury — A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.
Grade Three Injury — A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.
Hematoma — Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Illiotibial Band — A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.
Inflammation — The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.
Ligament — Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) — Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.
Meniscectomy — An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.
Meniscus — Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
Metacarpals — Five long bones of the hand running from the wrist to the fingers.
Metatarsals — Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
Patella Tendinitis — Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."
Patellofemoral Joint — Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.
Phlebitis — Inflammation of a vein.
Plica — Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) — A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months rehabilitation.
Reconstruction — Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.
Referred Pain — Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.
Rotator Cuff — Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.
Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome — A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) a partial rotator cuff tear of less than one cm.; and 4) a complete tear of one cm. or more.
Scapula — Shoulder blade.
Sciatica — Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.
Sciatic Nerve — Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.
Shin Splint — A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.
Spondylitis — Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis — Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.
Spondylosis — Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.
Sprain — Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.
Strain — Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.
Stress Fracture — A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.
Stress X-Ray — A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.
Sublaxation — Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.
Tarsals — Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.
Tendinitis — Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
Tendon — Tissue that connects muscle to bone.
Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome — A neuro-vascular disorder or the upper extremity common in throwing.
Tomograph — A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.
Transverse Process — Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.
Triangular Cartilage — A connective tissue characterized by its nonvascularity and firm consistency; located on the little finger side of the wrist.
Ulna Collateral Ligament — A band or sheet of fibrous tissue connecting two or more bones, cartilage, or other structures, or serving as support for fasciae or muscles located on the inside of the elbow (ligament that is replaced or repaired for the "Tommy John" surgery).
Ulnar Nerve — Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated by excessive throwing.
Wrist — The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and eight wrist bones (trapezium, capitate, hamate, pisiform, trequetral, lunate and scaphoid)

NOTE: This list is not meant to be all inclusive nor should it be used as a substitute for physician's diagnosis and/or description of an injury or illness. For further definitions, please refer to the Stedman's Pocket Medical Dictionary published by Williams and Wilkins.

Television & Radio Information

KCAL 9 is proud to be entering it's fifth consecutive year as the broadcast television home of the Anaheim Angels. In 2000, the award-winning KCAL 9 Sports team will televise over 50 regular season Angels baseball games to the Southern California sports Audience.

KCAL 9 is the leading local broadcaster of major professional sports in the nation. In addition to Angels Baseball, the station is home to the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers and Los Angeles Clippers, the NHL's Mighty Ducks of Anaheim, Fight Night Boxing, the Pac Bell Senior PGA Classic, Pac-Ten Football and the John R. Wooden Classic basketball tournament. In all, KCAL 9 provides coverage of over 150 major sporting events each year.

KCAL 9 is also home to one of Southern California's most critically acclaimed local news operations. The station's revolutionary KCAL 9 News is the nation's only three-hour local news broadcast on prime time television. Along with it's successful weekday news broadcasts at Noon, 2pm, 3:30pm and 9pm on weekends, the station provides nearly 30 hours of local news per week to the greater Los Angeles area. KCAL 9 is also home to the most comprehensive nightly sports report on local television, the Final Quarter. Hosted by Alan Massengale, John Ireland and Derrin Horton, Final Quarter is seen weeknights at 10:45pm.

In addition to news and sports, KCAL 9 is home to many of television's top syndicated hits including Judge Judy, Real TV, Jerry Springer, Peoples Court, Maury Povich and National Enquirer.

FOX Sports Net enters its eighth season as the cable television home of the Anaheim Angels, televising 50 regular season home games in 2000. Steve Physioc and former Angel, Rex Hudler, will provide the action exclusively on FOX Sports Net.

One of the country's largest regional sports networks, FOX Sports Net provides 24-hour sports programming to more than 5 million basic cable subscribers in Southern California, Nevada and Hawaii and presents more live, local sports programming than any other cable network or broadcast station in the market.

FOX Sports Net also telecasts the Anaheim Angels pre-game show, ANGELS IN THE INFIELD, one half-hour before each game. The show, hosted by Bill Macdonald, includes features and interviews with Angels players and management, plus offers a preview of the game.

In addition to the Angels, FOX Sports Net's local programming menu features the Los Angeles Lakers and Los Angeles Kings. FOX Sports Net's national programming includes Pac-10, Big 12 and Conference USA football, Baseball Thursday, Pac-10 Basketball, PGA Tour coverage, Formula One auto racing, ATP Tennis, Sunday Night Fights, and FOX Sports News, which offers up tho the minute scores, highlights and news from coast-to-coast. Also shown nationally are The Last Word, Goin'Deep, Rewind, Hardcore Baseball, Hardcore Football and NFL This Morning, FOX Sports Net's NFL pregame show hosted by Chris Myers with analysts Marv Levy, Jackie Slater and Chris Spielman.

The FOX Sports Net 2 programming menu includes the Los Angeles Dodgers, Los Angeles Clippers, Mighty Ducks of Anaheim, Los Angeles Galaxy, Los Angeles Avengers, Long Beach Ice Dogs, USC, UCLA, University of Hawaii and Pepperdine Athletics. Horse racing from Santa Anita, Hollywood Park and Los Alamitos, high school game of the week and San Diego Chargers pre season games.

FOX Sports Net is the first truly national, regional and local supplier of sports programming and reaches more than 68 million homes through 22 regional sports networks.

570AM KLAC

570AM KLAC in Los Angeles/Orange County begins its second season as the flagship station for the Anaheim Angels Radio Network.

KLAC will broadcast all regular season and post-season games live and in their entirety. This season the pre-game show will begin one-hour prior to the start of each game. The extended pre-game show will give Angel fans an in-depth look of the teams and players involved in that evenings game, as well as news and notes from around Major League Baseball. The post-game show will include post-game analysis, interviews from the clubhouse and a complete roundup of Major League scores and notes.

RADIO EXPRESS 1090 AM

XPRS 1090 AM enters its third season as the home of the Anaheim Angels Spanish radio broadcasts. XPRS is a 50,000 watts day and night station making it the most powerful Spanish radio station in the US. XPRS gives each fan the opportunity to follow Angels games with a coverage area from San Diego to San Luis Obispo.

Steve Physioc
Television Play-By-Play

Steve Physioc enters his fifth season as the television play-by-play voice of Angels baseball on FOX Sports Net and KCAL9. Prior to joining the Angels telecasts, Physioc served as the play-by-play announcer for a number of teams and sports.

Physioc, 44, began his major league play-by-play announcing career in 1983, broadcasting Cincinnati Bengals football and Cincinnati Reds baseball games for WLWT-TV until 1987. He then served as the San Francisco Giants announcer for KTVU-TV from 1987-88, followed by work for ESPN (1989-95), announcing Major League Baseball, college basketball, baseball and Big Ten football. In 1995, he announced San Diego Padres games and PAC-10 football games for FOX Sports West. Additionally, Physioc served as the radio voice of Kansas State football and basketball (1979-1982), was television voice for Fresno State football and basketball (1987-94); announced college basketball and football at Stanford (1992-95) and handled play-by-play duties for the 1993 Pigskin Classic.

Physioc's previous experience also includes radio play-by-play for the NBA's Golden State Warriors (1989-90), television play-by-play for Warriors games (1990-91) and the Vancouver Grizzlies during their inaugural season (1995-96) in the NBA. In addition, Physioc served as sports anchor for KTVU-TV (1987-89) in Oakland, CA and WIBW-TV (1979-83) in Topeka, KS and was sports director at WLWT-TV from 1983-87.

During the winter, Physioc broadcasts PAC-10 football and basketball games for FOX Sports West. A graduate of Kansas State University (1977), he and his wife Stacey make their home in Rancho Santa Margarita with their daughter Ryan and son Kevin.

Rex Hudler
Television Color Analyst

Rex Hudler enters his second season as the Angels' baseball analyst on FOX Sports Net and KCAL9. A veteran of 21 years in professional baseball, Hudler, nicknamed "Wonder Dog" during his playing career, played three seasons for the Angels (1994-96) as an infielder and outfielder. In his final season with the club, Hudler recorded a .311 average and career-high 16 home runs in 92 games.

During his professional career (1978-1998), Hudler played for 18 different teams, including a 1993 stint in Japan. In 774 career major league games, Hudler registered a .261 average with 56 home runs and 169 RBI. His minor league career consisted of 1,083 games.

A native of Tempe, AZ and a 1978 graduate of Bullard High School (Bullard, CA), Hudler played baseball, basketball, soccer and football, earning first-team All-America honors as a wide receiver. He was a 1999 inductee into the Fresno Athletic Hall of Fame. His talent landed him 25 football scholarship offers and upon which he signed a letter of intent to play at Notre Dame.

Hudler, 39, began his broadcasting career as a special correspondent for Good Morning America during the 1997 playoffs, World Series and 1998 Super Bowl.

Hudler and his wife Jennifer founded Team Up for Downs Syndrome to help support the Downs Syndrome community nationwide. The couple have two children, Alyssa and Cade, and reside in Tustin Ranch.

Mario Impemba
Radio Play-By-Play

Mario Impemba returns for his sixth season as the radio voice of Angels' baseball. He also serves as an additional play by play announcer for FOX Sports Net West and KCAL-9 telecasts. Prior to joining the Angels organization, he spent four seasons (1991-94) as play-by-play voice of the triple-A Tucson Toros of Pacific Coast League. Impemba also did television play-by-play of Toros games on KGUN, and from 1989-91 was the voice of the Quad City Angels, California's single-A affiliate in the Midwest League in Davenport, IA.

Impemba, 38, worked for the Peoria Chiefs baseball club (Chicago Cubs' single-A affiliate) from 1987-89; served as sports director for WXCL radio (Q-105 AM-FM) and was play-by-play voice (1987-88) of the Peoria Riverman of the International Hockey League.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Impemba began his career in 1982 as sports director of WLFT-AM radio in East Lansing, MI and served as the play-by-play voice of baseball, basketball and hockey of his alma mater. He and his wife Cathy make their home in Rancho Santa Margarita with their two sons, Brett and Daniel.

Daron Sutton
Radio Play-By-Play

Daron Sutton, 30, begins his first season as play-by-play announcer of the Angels. Prior to joining Anaheim's broadcasting team, he served as the host of "The New Dodge Braves Report" for FOX Sports South's telecasts of the Atlanta Braves. Sutton also handled FOX Sports South's SEC college baseball telecasts, as well as host for "SEC Today", a live, half-hour pregame show for FOX Sports South's SEC soccer, volleyball and women's basketball telecasts.

A former college pitcher at Auburn University-Montgomery, Sutton spent one season as a relief pitcher with the California Angels single-A affiliate in Boise, ID. He began his broadcasting career in the summer of 1993 for CNN Airport Network. In December, 1994 he moved to CNN Sports as an anchor for CNN Headline News and later became an anchor for CNN International before moving to FOX Sports South in 1997.

Ivan Lara
Spanish Radio Play-By-Play

Ivan Lara, 36, enters his third season with Anaheim as the play-by-play announcer for the Angels' Spanish radio on XPRS 1090-AM. Prior to joining the Angels' broadcasting team, Lara served with Cactus Broadcasting (KXEW and KOHT Radio) as the play-by-play voice of the University of Arizona Football and Basketball teams from 1994 until his current appointment. He also hosted the sports program "Panorama Deportivo" and backed up for the Spanish broadcasting core of the NBA's Phoenix Suns.

From 1993-94, Lara served as the play-by-play voice of the Tucson Toros of the Pacific Coast League (Houston Astros triple-A affiliate) on KTZR. From 1990-92, he hosted the pre-game and post-game shows for the Toros and was also part of the play-by-play team. Additionally, Lara has worked as a news director and public service director for KXEW and KOHT Radio. Lara has also worked play-by-play in the 1993, 1994 and 1995 Copper Bowls.

Jose Tolentino
Spanish Radio Color Analyst

Tolentino, 38, starts his third campaign with Ivan Lara as the Angels' Spanish broadcast team on XPRS 1090-AM. Tolentino joined Anaheim's broadcast team after announcing for ESPN during the 1997 and 1998 Caribbean World Series' of the Winter Baseball Leagues in Puerto la Cruz, Venezuela and Hermosillo, Mexico. He also served as a columnist for El Imparcial during the 1997 Series. From 1995-96, Tolentino was involved in various broadcasts in Monterrey, Mexico covering Major and Mexican League games as well as World Championship Boxing and Mexican Soccer Games.

The Mexico City, Mexico native was a member of the 1983 Texas Longhorns National Championship team, along with future major leaguers Roger Clemens, Dennis Cook, Calvin Schiraldi and Bruce Ruffin. He was drafted by the Oakland Athletics that same year and became the first Mexican player to sign out of college.

As an infielder/outfielder, he played in the Oakland A's (1983-87), Texas Rangers (1988), Houston Astros (1988-91) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1992, 1996) organizations along with the Japanese (1993) and Mexican Leagues (1994-96).

Active in youth baseball clinics throughout the year, Tolentino and his wife, Nathalie, reside in Mission Viejo, CA. Jose has two children, Eric-Jose and Patric.

The Name, Logos and Colors

On Nov. 19, 1996, the California Angels announced the official change of the team name to the Anaheim Angels in a press conference held at Anaheim Stadium. At the same time, the Angels unveiled their new official team colors and logos for the upcoming season.

The announcement represented the third team name and sixth uniform change in franchise history. The expansion franchise Los Angeles Angels were born in 1960, and played their first game in 1961. Named "Angels" for the English translation and nickname ("The City of Angels") of the city, the club remained in Los Angeles from 1961-65, before moving to Anaheim in 1966. The organization officially became the California Angels in Sept., 1965 to coincide with a uniform change the following season, and has remained in Anaheim since the move in 1966.

SM

This is the sixth major uniform change in franchise history. The previous Angels' uniform change came in 1993, when the club sported an "Updated Classic" look similar to the one represented by the organization from 1965-70.

The Anaheim Angels selected navy, periwinkle, medium blue, light blue, red, gold and bronze as their colors. The color system utilized for the Anaheim Angels was created with the goal of keeping true to the roots of the team while providing a fresh, new look. The navy and red that have been the team's official colors since the 1961 inaugural season were maintained. This time around, though, periwinkle blue was added as a third main color.

The new Angels logos were designed by Disney Consumer Products and approved by Major League Baseball Properties. The team lettering weds an angel's wing with a speeding ball to create a logo that immediately says "ANGELS" and give the feeling of fluidity and motion of the game of baseball.

The Angels have a primary club logo and secondary club logo. The primary logo contains crossed gold and bronze baseball bats outlined in periwinkle under a medium blue home plate outlined in navy, periwinkle and light blue. Written across the top of home plate is "ANAHEIM." Centered over home plate is the new "ANGELS" script in red outlined in white, navy and periwinkle. An angel's wing sits to the left of "ANGELS" with part of the design representing the cross of the letter "A." This "A" and wing design represent the secondary club logo.

The Angels' home uniforms include navy blue cap and bill, secondary club logo and periwinkle button. The jersey is a white double-knit button down style with navy pinstripes down the front and back and navy sleeves. The pants are similar in style and pinstripes to the jersey.

The Angels road uniforms include a navy blue cap and bill, secondary club logo and periwinkle button. The jersey is gray with similar style, pinstripes and sleeves as the home jersey. The pants are also similar in style and pinstripes to the home jersey.

The "ANGELS" script from the primary club logo appears on the front of both uniforms. On the back of both jerseys are large numerals in red which are outlined in white and navy as well as the player's last name in navy outlined in white above the numeral. A smaller navy numeral outlined in periwinkle appears below "ANGELS" on the left side of the front of the jerseys. An emblem appears on the left sleeve of both jerseys, consisting of the "ANAHEIM" logo over a rendition of Anaheim Stadium's famous big "A" structure (capital "A" with a halo). "ANAHEIM" is in gold and outlined in white and navy. The "A" is periwinkle outlined in white and navy with a gold halo circling the top outlined in navy. The club wears navy belts and stirrups and black shoes. Helmets are similar in color and logo to the home and road cap.

The club also has an alternate jersey, cap and practice jersey. The alternate jersey is in a navy button-down style with the secondary logo on the left side of the chest, periwinkle piping around the collar, down the front of the jersey and around the base of each sleeve. The emblem appears on the left sleeve and player's white numeral outlined in periwinkle on the right sleeve. Large red numerals, outlined in white and periwinkle, and the player's last name in white, outlined in periwinkle, appear on the back of the jersey. The alternate cap is navy blue with periwinkle bill, secondary club logo and red button. The practice jersey is in the navy button-down style with secondary club logo on the left front and player numeral on the right sleeve. The jersey has similar lettering and numerals on the back as the alternate jersey.

Community Relations

As a fixture in Southern California for 40 years, the Angels have committed themselves to becoming an integral part of the community. This dedication is embodied in the many charitable programs, fund raisers and community activities the Angels sponsor or support.

FUND RAISERS: The Angels have made it a priority to actively raise funds for local charities, organizations and programs. The primary recipient of money raised by the Angels is Angels Care, a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation. Some of the events and projects that the Angels have spearheaded on behalf of Angels Care and other charitable organizations include the following:

Game Used Jersey Auction: Initiated in 1997, this annual fund raiser secures funds for Angels Care to distribute to the community. During the 2000 season, game used jerseys from the previous season will be auctioned off. Fans can submit sealed bids or bid via the internet at: www.angelsbaseball.com.

Brick Project: Be part of history as fans can purchase an inscribed brick to be placed in the replica diamond in front of the main walkway at Edison Field. All proceeds will benefit Angels Care, which supports such programs as Reviving Baseball in the Inner cities, little league fields and park renovations and a variety of non-profit agencies in Southern California.

Gene Autry Courage Awards: The Gene Autry Courage Award is given annually to individuals in sports whose life and actions demonstrate special courage in the face of challenge. In 2000, the award will be presented at a formal dinner in March in Tempe, Ariz.

Message Board: Fans can have birthday or anniversary messages put on the Matrix board for a fee donated to Angels Care.

Sixty-Five Roses Golf Tournament: For the 22nd consecutive year, the Angels will team up with the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation for the Angels Care Sixty-Five Roses Golf Tournament in October. Hosted by Don Baylor and Terry Collins.

Law Enforcement Torch Run: Through Angels Care, the Angels are involved in the Southern California Special Olympic Summer Games in which they participate in the Law Enforcement Torch Run. Two torches are run for this event in June, one from Rosarito Beach in Mexico and one from San Luis Obispo, Calif. Both are accompanied by Special Olympic members and law enforcement officers and meet at Long Beach State for the Southern California Special Olympics Summer Games.

Youth Mural Project: Angels Care in cooperation with the Anaheim Arts Council and Edison International sponsor this contest, which is open to all Orange County students ages 6-12, to promote the creative arts in the classroom.

Black and White Ball: Held on March 25, 2000, this black tie dinner recognizes individuals who have given their time, talents and resources for the benefit of children. Angels Care will be working in conjunction with the Olive Crest Home for Abused Children on this event, which will help provide financial support for the world-wide problem of child abuse.

Rookie Ball: As an organization, the Angels firmly believe in the benefits realized by youths who participate in the game of baseball. Because many children do not have the opportunity to participate in organized baseball due to financial difficulties, the Angels established their Rookie Ball Program. This instructional program is for children ages 6-12 and is conducted in a number of cities throughout Southern California. Last year, 2,000 kids participated in the Angels Rookie Ball program.

Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities: This national Major League Baseball program is conducted with Boys and Girls Clubs, giving youngsters ages 13-18 an opportunity to participate in organized baseball. The 2000 MLB season will be the Angels second year to participate in RBI, which also utilizes an off-field education program (SMART Moves) to teach the participants important life skills tools.

Field Renovations: Through generous contributions from Angels players, various little league community fields will be renovated through this Angels Care program.

Childhelp USA Golf Tournament: Angels Care, in partnership with Childhelp USA sponsor a celebrity golf tournament each summer. Childhelp USA is the largest national, non-profit organization devoted to combating child abuse.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS: In addition to the many programs supported by Angels Care, the Angels will also sponsor a number of other programs and events throughout the baseball season, including:

Clinics: Held four times per season, clinics offer children ages 6-14 an opportunity to learn baseball fundamentals from Angels players, coaches and former players. One of the most exciting aspects of the day is that the clinics take place right on Edison Field.

Pre-Game Activities: A myriad of local charities, organizations and community groups join the Angels prior to home games, participating in pre-game recognition, first pitch, bat boy/girl, hometown heroes, between inning contests and much more.

Wives Canned Food Drive: Like the Angels players and management, the Angels players' wives are committed to giving back to the Southern California community. The players' wives sponsor a canned food drive each June at Edison Field to assist the Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County.

Make-a-Wish and Starlight Foundations: Each year, the Angels assist in fulfilling the dreams of terminally-ill children through the Make-a-Wish and Starlight Foundations. By arranging for these young people to attend a game and meet some of their favorite players, the Angels hope to provide them with a day to remember.

Speaker's Bureau: Retired Angels players, as well as management staff and other team representatives, will attend and speak at venues such as schools, rotary clubs, lion clubs, corporate and professional organizations. Angels speakers not only provide a wealth of "inside" information about the Angels, but are generally entertaining for the groups to which they speak.

Christmas Party: Each year, the Angels and Mighty Ducks host a Christmas party at Disney ICE for over 100 children in Orange County. Children receive cake and ice cream, toys, goodie bags and autographs from players.

Community Relations

Hospital Visits: Angels players will visit the Children's Hospital of Orange County (CHOC) and UCI Medical Center Pedriatic Wing throughout the course of the season, providing smiles and Angels merchandise to children.

Chamber of Commerce Luncheon: In March, 2000, a Chamber of Commerce luncheon will be held for the Orange County community to introduce and showcase the Angels to their fans. This event will benefit local charities for homeless and underprivildge youth.

Times in Education: This program, developed in conjunction with the Times-Orange County, is directed toward elementary schools throughout the county. It allows children to learn reading, writing, arithmetic and geography through a newspaper program with baseball as the primary tool.

Player and Mascot Appearances: Angels players and mascots will visit local hospitals, schools, charitable functions and sponsor-related events.

"Drug Use is Life Abuse": The Angels support the Orange County Sheriff's Department in their ongoing efforts to educate school children on the dangers of drug abuse.

Educational Initiatives: The Angels are committed to helping educate the leaders of tomorrow through a variety of educational programs including; a youth mural contest, math trivia contest and taking part in MLB's "Breaking Barriers" program. The Angels are also active in providing speakers at school career days.

Diamond Skills: The Diamond Skills competition is MLB's official skills competition which provides boys and girls across the country the opportunity to test their baseball skills. There are four levels of competition: Local competition, sectional competition, team championship and national finals. The team championship will be held at Edison International Field of Anaheim in June, 2000.

Anaheim's farm system concluded the 1999 season with a 345-365 (.486) record overall. Double-A Erie qualified for post-season competition after capturing the Eastern League Southern Division championship.

EDMONTON (65-74): The Trappers, who returned as Anaheim's triple-A affiliate and were led by first-year manager CARNEY LANSFORD, finished 65-74 for third place in the Pacific Coast League's North Division (17.5 games behind PCL champion Vancouver). Edmonton played well down the stretch, winning seven of its final 10 games. On the mound, the club posted a 4.94 ERA, placing eighth in the 16-team league. RHP MIKE FYHRIE was Edmonton's leading pitcher with a 9-5 record and 3.47 ERA (third-best in PCL). RHP SCOTT BROW, who posted a club-record 15 saves, led the league in games (64). RHP LOU POTE tied for third in the PCL with three complete games. Offensively, the Trappers compiled a .281 team batting average (tied for No. 12 in the league). 1B-DH BROOKS KIESCHNICK, on loan from Tampa Bay, led Edmonton with 23 home runs and 73 RBI. He was named the Trappers' Player of the Year. C BRET HEMPHILL hit .313 and 3B JAMIE BURKE, who hit .336, had a club-best 16-game hitting streak. CF NORM HUTCHINS led the club with 25 stolen bases, 27 doubles and six triples. BROW and FYHRIE represented Edmonton at the PCL's All-Star Game.

ERIE (81-61): Led by manager GARRY TEMPLETON, the SeaWolves won the Eastern League Southern Division championship with an 81-61 record (five games over second place Harrisburg). It was Erie's inaugural season at the double-A level and first as an Anaheim affiliate. After winning seven of their final 10 games, the SeaWolves lost in the Eastern League Semifinals to Harrisburg, going 1-3 in the best-of-five series. On the mound, Erie posted the league's best ERA (3.75) and led the EL in complete games (19). RHP RAMON ORTIZ, who was 9-4 with a 2.82 ERA, was named the Eastern League's Pitcher of the Year. Other top pitchers for the club included RHP SETH ETHERTON (10-10, 3.27 ERA) and RHP BRIAN COOPER (10-5, 3.30 ERA), who ranked sixth and seventh in the league in ERA, respectively. ETHERTON finished second in the league with 153 strikeouts while COOPER ranked fifth (143). COOPER had a league-best six complete games while ETHERTON ranked third with four complete games. ETHERTON'S team-leading 167.2 innings ranked No. 4 in the league. LHP MATT BEAUMONT recorded a club-best 12 saves. Offensively, Erie compiled a .258 batting average (tied for ninth in the league). 1B LARRY BARNES led the club with 20 home runs and 100 RBI (third-most in EL play). 3B SHAWN WOOTEN (.292, 19 HR, 88 RBI) ranked fourth in the league with 151 hits. 2B TRENT DURRINGTON was second in the league with 59 stolen bases. BARNES and COOPER were selected to the EL's All-Star Team.

LAKE ELSINORE (63-77): The Storm was led in 1999 by manager MARIO MENDOZA, in his second year at Lake Elsinore and ninth with the Angels. Lake Elsinore finished with a 63-77 overall record (30-40 in the first half for a third-place tie, 33-37 in the second half for fourth place) in California League South Division play. The Storm, who drew the league's second-highest attendance (281,521), compiled a .273 team average (tied for sixth-best in the league). OF JUAN RODRIGUEZ led the club with a .302 average. IF MATT CURTIS collected a team-best 17 home runs and 76 RBI. SS NELSON CASTRO led the league with 53 stolen bases and tied for second with 12 triples. OF DARREN BLAKELY collected a team-high 38 doubles (No. 4 in league). On the mound, the Storm ranked sixth in the league with a 4.63 team ERA and led all California League teams with 21 complete games. Lake Elsinore pitchers walked just 481 batters (second-fewest in the league). RHP STEVE GREEN (7-6) ranked 10th in the league with a 3.95 ERA and was tops in the league with four shutouts. RHP STEVE FISH had a team-high 11 wins and led the league with 180 strikeouts and 196.2 innings pitched. Three of the Storm's pitchers ranked in the Top 5 for complete games: FISH (5, tied for first), RHP BRENDON COWSILL (4, tied for third) and GREEN (4, tied for third). BLAKELY and RHP SCOT SHIELDS (20-3, 2.52 ERA) were participants in the All-Star Game.

CEDAR RAPIDS (61-77): The Kernels were managed by MITCH SEOANE, who was in his first season at Cedar Rapids. The club posted a 61-77 overall mark in Midwest League play, going 30-38 for fourth place in the first half and 31-39 for third place in the second half. The Kernels tied for No. 11 in the league with a .255 batting average. C JASON HILL led Cedar Rapids with a .287 average and added nine home runs and 52 RBI. 3B MIKE CHRISTENSEN (.282) had a team-leading 18 home runs and 71 RBI, and tied for second in the Midwest League with 36 doubles. OF ELPIDIO GUZMAN ranked second in the league with 13 triples and tied for third with 52 stolen bases. On the mound, the Kernels, who ranked eighth with a 4.49 ERA, led the league with 21 complete games and ranked second in fewest walks allowed (459). LHP DOUG BRIDGES, who was 15-5 with a 3.59 ERA, led the league in wins. LHP JEFF HUNDLEY (9-9, 4.04 ERA) had a league-leading six complete games while RHP BRANDON EMANUEL (7-12, 4.47 ERA) ranked second with five. HUNDLEY led the club with 140 strikeouts while LHP CHRIS DEMOUY led the Kernels with 16 saves. Cedar Rapids had four players selected to the 1999 Midwest League All-Star Team: HILL, CHRISTENSEN, RHP RENNEY DUARTE and RHP GREG JONES.

BOISE (43-33): The defending Northwest League Northern Division-champion Hawks were again led by TOM KOTCHMAN, who has managed Boise since 1990. Boise concluded the 1999 season with a 43-33 record in the South Division, winning five of the final six games to finish one game behind league-champion Spokane. Boise ranked as the Northwest League's top offensive team with a league-best .302 batting average. The Hawks also led the league in runs scored (556), at-bats (2,697) and hits (814, 65 more than second-place Spokane). Boise had three hitters ranked in the league's Top 10: DH CHRIS BARSKI (.348) was third, OF MICHAEL O'KEEFE (.326) was eighth and 3B ROBB QUINLAN (.322) was 10th. QUINLAN, who was named the Northwest League's Most Valuable Player, led the league in hits (95) and RBI (77). O'KEEFE ranked second with 70 RBI and fourth with 86 hits. OF SCOTT BIKOWSKI was tied for tops in the league with 22 doubles and ranked third with a team-leading 59 runs scored. 2B ALFREDO AMEZAGA, who was selected the Hawks' Most Popular Player by the fans, hit in 22 straight games to establish a club record. O'KEEFE and AMEZAGA were also named to the League's All-Star Team. On the mound, Boise ranked fifth with a 4.89 ERA and led the league in fewest walks allowed (254). LHP WESLEY CRAWFORD (5-1) led the league with a 2.21 ERA. RHP JOHN LACKEY (6-2, 4.98) posted a club-high 77 strikeouts (tied for fourth in the league). RHP MARIO MENDOZA (8-2) ranked third in the league in wins. RHP BEN GREZLOVSKI led the club with seven saves and RHP PALMER EBANKS led the Hawks with 27 appearances (tied for third in the league).

BUTTE (32-43): The Copper Kings, under first-year manager JOE URSO, finished with a 32-43 record overall (17-21 in the first half for third place; 15-22 in the second half for fourth place) in the Pioneer League's South Division. Butte finished as the league's top offensive team with a .290 average and a league-leading 765 hits. 3B CORDELL LINDSEY, who led Butte with 10 home runs and 58 RBI, ranked fourth in the league with a .341 average while INF GREGORY WHITE was eighth with a .327 average. LINDSEY also tied for second in the Pioneer League with 23 doubles and ranked third in slugging percentage (.604), extra-base hits (40) and runs scored (72). 1B PETER ORGILL's .420 on-base percentage ranked No. 5 in the league. OF ED WELCH led the Copper Kings with 24 stolen bases. Minor League Awards

The Dick Wantz Memorial Trophy is given annually to the player who shows the most dedication and improvement during the Angels Arizona Instructional League program. Wantz, a right-handed pitcher for the Angels in 1965, died suddenly of a brain tumor. He pitched only one inning in a major league game. Past winners:

1966 — Jim Spencer (1b)
1967 — Tom Burgmeier (lhp)
1968 — Gordon Avery (2b)
1969 — Steve Schneider (2b)
1970 — Joe Henderson (rhp)
1971 — Junior Riggins (of)
1972 — Billy Smith (ss)

WINS & LOSSES: The Anaheim Angels concluded the 1999 season, their 39th campaign overall and 34th in Anaheim, with a 70-92 record, in fourth place, 25 games behind Texas in the American League West…The 70 wins are the fewest by an Angels' club since 1996 (70-91, 4th, -19 1/2) and the 92 losses is the most since 1983 (70-92; T5th, -29)…The drop in wins by 15 from 1998 is the largest since 1986-87 (17; 92-70 in 1986 & 75-87 in 1987)…25 games off the pace is the most since 1988 (-29; 75-87)…The Angels' largest lead of the season in the A.L. West was one game, April 10 (3-2)…The Angels' largest deficit of the season was 29 games (3 times; Sept. 6-8)…The fourth place standing marked the lowest since 1996 (70-91), after finishing in second place the past two seasons…The Angels spent eight days in first place, 18 in second, 11 in third and 140 days in the last position in the division…The Angels' .432 winning percentage ranked 10th in the American League and 23rd in the major leagues, after finishing sixth and tied for 12th, respectively, in 1998…The percentage is the lowest since 1983 (.432) and the largest difference (.093) from the previous season (.525) since 1986-87 (.568 to .463)…The club finished below .500 for the 26th time in club history and fifth time in the last eight seasons…Anaheim posted a 41-45 record before the All-Star break and a 29-47 mark after…The 41 wins in the first half was the fewest by the Angels since 1994 (38-51), while the 45 losses was the most since 1995 (43-45)…The Angels were a season-best one game over .500 four times (last time: April 16, 6-5)…The club fell 32 games under .500, Sept. 5 (52-84), equalling the club record set Sept. 22, 1974 (61-93)…The Angels finished 37-44 at home and 33-48 on the road…The below-.500 record at home marked the 20th in club history, the first since 1994 (23-40), and just the third in the last 11 seasons…The 37 wins in Anaheim is the fewest since 1988 (35-46)…The 33-48 mark on the road marked the fewest wins away from home since 1996 (27-53)…Among A.L. foes, the club finished with a 20-36 record against the East, 24-28 vs. the Central and 20-16 against West opponents, for a final 64-80 mark (.444) record against the circuit…The winning record against the West marked the third straight (19-17 in 1998 & 25-11 in 1997), for the first time since 1978-80…The Angels have finished above .500 four times vs. the Central in the division's six-year existence…In interleague play, Anaheim posted a 6-12 record against the N.L. West, after posting a 10-6 record in 1998 and 4-12 mark in 1997…The winning percentage (.333) tied for second worst in the A.L. (Boston & Kansas City), after tying for second best (Cleveland) a season ago…The Angels posted a winning record vs. six teams (Colorado, Kansas City, Minnesota, Oakland, New York & Tampa Bay), a losing record against eight clubs (Arizona, Baltimore, Boston, Cleveland, Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco & Toronto) and a .500 record vs. four opponents (Chicago, Detroit, Seattle & Texas)…The club lost nine games against four opponents (Baltimore, Boston, Cleveland & Toronto), while the eight wins against Oakland (8-4) was the most against any club…The Angels won just one game against Boston and three against Toronto, the fewest against each team in club history…Anaheim finished 23-25 in one-run games (17-7 at home), 14-13 in two-run contests (4-5 at home) and 9-15 in three-run games, indicating 61% of Angels' games in 1998 were decided by three-runs-or-less…The Angels posted two winning months (Sept. 16-12 & Oct. 3-0), the first winning Sept. since 1991 (15-13) and the most wins in the month since 1986 (17-10)…The 3-0 record in Oct. equals a club record for wins (fifth time) and winning percentage (3-0 in 1982) in the month…The eight wins in July (8-17) is the fewest in the month in club history (nine three times), while the eight wins in Aug. (8-21) equals the fewest in the month in club annals (8-18 in 1963)…The Angels' longest winning streak was five games (Sept. 12-15 & Sept. 29-Oct. 3; final five games of season)…The Angels' longest losing streak was 11 games (July 16-26), equaling the second longest losing streak in club history (third time).

Club History

Franchise History

In the winter of 1960, Gene Autry attended the American League expansion meeting in St. Louis seeking radio rights for his Golden West Broadcasting firm. On Dec. 6, 1960 he returned as Owner and Chairman of the Board of the expansion Los Angeles Angels.

Following is a chronological look of the beginning of the Los Angeles Angels:

1960

Dec. 6 — At St. Louis, MO, the expansion Los Angeles Angels is awarded to Gene Autry, Robert O. Reynolds, Paul A. O'Bryan and associates.
Dec. 8 — Fred Haney is named General Manager.
Dec. 12 — Bill Rigney is named Field Manager.
Dec. 14 — Haney and Rigney select 28 players from the American League player pool at a meeting in Boston…Total cost: $2,150,000 including two minor league draft picks…First player drafted is pitcher Eli Grba.
Dec. 16 — Palm Springs, CA announced as spring training site.

Jan. 14 — Leonard K. Firestone becomes part owner and Vice President of the Angels.
Jan. 24 — Angels announce signing of first two players - outfielders Bob Cerv and Albie Pearson.
Feb. 6 — Angels hold first public tryout camp at Sawtelle Hospital…Over 300 prospects attend tryout…Six players are signed.
Feb. 24 — Angels open spring training camp in Palm Springs.
Mar. 11 — Angels defeat Chicago Cubs in first exhibition game, 8-3, before an overflow crowd at the Polo Grounds in Palm Springs…Club also wins second game on March 12, 12-5.
Apr. 11 — Behind the strong pitching of Eli Grba and power of Ted Kluszewski, the Angels rolled to a 7-2 victory in their first American League regular season game. Grba went the distance, allowing one earned run on six hits. Kluszewski hit a pair of home runs and collected five RBI. The Angels scored all seven runs in the first two frames, three in the first inning on back-to-back home runs by Kluszewski and Bob Cerv.

The Angels finished the 1961 season with a 70-91 record. The club's .435 winning percentage established and still stands as the best of any expansion team in major league history.

The Angels played at Wrigley Field in Los Angeles in 1961, then moved to Chavez Ravine (now Dodger Stadium) in 1962 and remained their through the 1965 season. In 1966, the franchise moved south to Anaheim and played 32 seasons at Anaheim Stadium. The club opened the 1997 season as the Anaheim Angels and began play at Edison Field in 1998.

Angels Original Player Draft

The Angels drafted a total of 28 players from the existing American League clubs on December 14, 1960. Owners of the new Los Angeles and Washington clubs as well as their recently appointed front offices and field bosses — General Manager Fred Haney and Manager Bill Rigney of the Angels and General Manager Ed Doherty and Manager Mickey Vernon of the Senators — attended the session held in the league offices.

A price of $75,000 was set on the players to be picked and both of the new clubs were required to select 28. The players were picked by categories, starting with pitchers, then catchers, infielders and outfielders. A toss of the coin determined which club had first choice in each group, and then they alternated. Haney won the toss for three positions — all but for outfielders.

Besides the 28 regular selections by both clubs, Los Angeles bought two players from the special minor league pool at $25,000 apiece and Washington grabbed three. Thus, the Angels paid $2,150,000 for their 30 players and the Senators shelled out $2,175,000 for their 31 players in the unprecedented distribution.

Following is the order in which the Angels players were selected:
NOTE: Following the selections, Wilson notified the Angels and Cleveland that he intended to retire from the game. As a result, his selection was canceled several weeks later and the Indians sent pitcher Ted Bowsfield to the Angels as a replacement.

Edison International Field of Anaheim

EDISON INTERNATIONAL FIELD OF ANAHEIM

Renovations to Anaheim Stadium began Oct. 1, 1996, reverting the 30-year old structure back to a baseball-only facility. On Sept. 15, 1997, the renovated stadium's new name was announced: Edison International Field of Anaheim. The new name coincides with a 20-year sponsorship agreement between Anaheim Sports, Inc. and Edison International, a corporation based in Rosemead, California, that is a world leader in energy production, distribution, research, technology, capital financing and the marketing of consumer products and services. Total cost for the stadium renovation was estimated at $100 million and the project was completed in time for the Anaheim Angels Opening Day, April 1, 1998.

Anaheim Stadium had been the home of the Angels since their move from Los Angeles following the 1965 season. The stadium opened April 9, 1966, as the California Angels hosted the San Francisco Giants in an exhibition game. The franchise's first American League game was April 19, 1966 vs. the Chicago White Sox. The Los Angeles Angels played at Wrigley Field in 1961 and Chavez Ravine from 1962-65.

The original Anaheim Stadium seated 43,204 (later 43,250). The stadium underwent construction in 1979-80 for additional seating to accommodate the Los Angeles Rams of the NFL. Upon completion in 1981, the stadium seated 65,158 (later 64,593) for baseball. The Rams left Anaheim for St. Louis, MO in 1995. The new Edison Field has a seating capacity of approximately 45,050 for the Anaheim Angels.

Edison International Field Ground Rules

- Ball striking any forward-facing green padded dugout or photographer well railing is considered a live ball.
- Ball going in, through or over any dugout photographer well is considered dead.
    1. Pitched ball is one (1) base.
    2. Thrown ball is two (2) bases.
- Ball striking guy-wires that support the backstop is considered dead.
    1. Batted ball is dead.
    2. Pitched ball is one (1) base.
    3. Thrown ball is two (2) bases.
- Foul poles and attached screen (yellow) are in fair territory. Ball striking either the pole or attached screen is a home run.
- Batted ball in fair territory getting stuck under the tarp, or field wall pads, is considered dead.
    1. Dead ball, two (2) bases.

Edison International Field of Anaheim

Other unique features of the new Edison Field include terraced bullpens in the outfield, widened concourses, new restroom and concession areas, a spacious and modernized press box and broadcast booths, family-oriented seating sections (The Nestle Family Zone), state-of-the-art club-level and dugout-level suites, the Pepsi Perfect Game Pavilion (a youth-oriented interactive game area) and landscaped courtyards (with statues in rememberance of Gene Autry and Michelle Carew).

In addition, the new Edison Field includes three full-service restaurants: The KnotHole Club (a sports bar located at the club level down the right field line); The Diamond Club (an upscale restaurant with outdoor seating on the field level behind home plate); and the Home Plate Club (an indoor restaurant on the club level overlooking the main entrance to the ballpark).

The following organizations were involved in implementing the transition of Anaheim Stadium into Edison International Field of Anaheim: Walt Disney Imagineering, which served as the manager of the design and construction of Edison Field; HOK Sports Facilities Group and Robert A.M. Stern Architects, which were responsible for the architectural planning, design and renovation; and Turner Construction, which directed and provided construction services.

Anaheim Stadium - A Look Back

Anaheim Stadium was home to the Angels for 32 years, beginning with an April 9, 1966, exhibition contest vs. the San Francisco Giants and concluding with the final game of the 1997 season, a 4-0 loss to the Texas Rangers, Sept. 28.

After an Aug. 31, 1964 groundbreaking ceremony, Anaheim Stadium was completed in 1966 at a cost of $24 million. The facility's centerpiece was a giant A-frame scoreboard standing 230 feet high and was the source of the stadium's nickname, "The Big A."

With a seating capacity of 43,250, Anaheim Stadium was built with "Convenience, Comfort and Courtesy" in mind. Narrow foul territory areas and quickly-rising decks gave fans an up-close view of the action. Gradually-inclined ramps, escalators, wide aisles and helpful ushers as well as three surrounding freeways, 26 entrance lanes and 28 exit lanes added to the Big A's accessibility.

Anaheim Stadium underwent construction to enclose the stadium in 1979 for additional seating to accommodate the football Rams. Seating capacity was increased to 64,593 for baseball and more than 70,000 for football. A total of 108 executive style boxes were added to surround the rear of the Club Level. In addition to the Stadium Club, there were two other private dining areas designed for groups — the Stadium Pavilion and the Football Press Box.

At that time, the Big A board was preserved and moved to the edge of the parking lot adjacent to the Orange Freeway behind the right field area.

When the Rams left for St. Louis, Anaheim Stadium's primary tenant remained the Angels, who originally signed a 35-year contract (through 2001). Renovations began Oct. 1, 1996, to revert the 30-year old structure back to a baseball only facility. Total cost for the renovation was estimated at $100 million.

April 10, 1964 — Anaheim City Council accepts letter of intent in special joint session of Council of Orange County Board of Supervisors, but Supervisors decline to join Anaheim in financing and constructing stadium. City Council unanimously votes to "Go it Alone." Contractor Del Webb pledges to complete stadium before April, 1966 and proceeds with plans, at his own risk, pending final decision of Council. Council authorizes City Manager and City Attorney to draw up lease agreement with Angels and contract for construction of stadium.
Aug. 8, 1964 — Anaheim and Angels sign 35-year lease for stadium.
Aug. 25, 1964 — Purchase of 150 acres completed. By resolution, City Council officially names stadium "Anaheim Stadium."
Aug. 26, 1964 — Anaheim and Del Webb Construction sign contract for construction of stadium to seat about 50,000 at maximum cost of $16 million.
Aug. 31, 1964 — Groundbreaking for construction of stadium. Angels owner Gene Autry, Del Webb and Anaheim Mayor Odra Chandler shoveled soil in a clearing surrounded by orange groves and corn fields.
Aug. 26, 1965 — Structural steel construction of stadium completed.
Sept. 2, 1965 — Decision made to open with 43,204 seating capacity.
Oct. 1, 1965 — Stadium grass planted.
Oct. 15, 1965 — Last concrete poured.
Nov. 15, 1965 — Installation of seats begins.
Nov. 23, 1965 — Compaction and grading of parking lot begins.
Dec. 8, 1965 — Model of scoreboard is unveiled; Standard Oil Company to finance $1 million, 230-foot, A-frame scoreboard structure in left field.
Dec. 29, 1965 — Placement of light towers; work on scoreboard begins.
April 9, 1966 — Anaheim Stadium opens in Angels' exhibition vs. San Francisco Giants.

Anaheim Stadium

Anaheim Stadium, America's newest and most modern baseball facility, is designed for the fan. A three-level structure with unobstructed views from anywhere in the ballpark, it is designed to "bring the fans back to the game and the game back to the fans." Combining convenience and comfort, it is only 109 feet from the field to the top seat of the third level. The cost of Anaheim Stadium, including concession and Stadium Club equipment and scoreboard, is $24 million. At present, the park seats 43,204 within the grandstand, with provisions for outfield pavilions in the near future. Some 20,000 seats are in the infield area. With 42-inch aisles, the field level seats are terra cotta (brick); club level, orange and the upper view level, beige. Ground level parking accommodates some 12,000 automobiles and over 200 buses. The entire stadium encompasses some 140 acres. There are four main entrances with 33 lanes of traffic rotated for quick access prior to and after the games. There are two escalators, one at first base and one a third base, 16 ramps and four elevators in Anaheim Stadium. The foul lines are 333 feet, center field is 406 feet, with left and right center, 375 feet. The outfield fence is 10 feet high. The Stadium Club accommodates some 500 people. The $1 million "A" frame scoreboard with message board in left field towers 230 feet. High on the frame is a halo, the long-time Angels symbol. Some 1,900 lights (with 1,500 watt bulbs) light the stadium. Eight million pounds of structural steel went into construction, with nearly a half-million nuts and bolts. Also the stadium has 35,000 cubic yards of concrete; 7,000,000 pounds of reinforced steel and some 2,100 pre-cast concrete sections totaling 7,000 cubic yards of concrete. 41 frame sections compose the roof of the stadium. The stadium itself covers 782,000 square feet. The Angels dugout and clubhouse is at third base, the visitors at first base. The press box is a two level structure, with print media on the lower level. There are seven radio-TV booths. Nobel Herzberg was the architect for Anaheim Stadium.

1981

Anaheim Stadium, nicknamed the "Big A," is completely enclosed following construction in 1979-80 to accommodate the Los Angeles Rams. Major tenants include the Angels, Rams and California Surf soccer club. The facility seats 65,158 for baseball and nearly 70,000 for football. A new video scoreboard, built by Stewart-Warner (who created the Big-A board), was installed in 1980 on the facade of the left-center field roof. The Big-A board has been preserved and moved to the edge of the parking lot adjacent to the Orange Freeway behind the right field area. A total of 106 executive style boxes were added to surround the rear of the club level. In addition to the Stadium Club, there are several private dining areas designed for groups, including the Extra-Inning Club, the Grand Slam Room, the Top of the Big-A and the Football Press Box. The Football Press Box is located on the View Level on the left field side, while the Baseball Press Box is on the Club Level behind home plate. Additionally, a new sound system and metal halide lamps were installed. New construction and improvements of facilities, including peripheral ground, was the responsibility of Cabot, Cabot and Forbes Consultants (Los Angeles). The consulting architect was Devine James Labinski Myers (Kansas City) in conjunction with Skidmore, Owings & Marrill (Los Angeles).

Attendance

The Angels finished the 1999 season with a home attendance of 2,253,123 (81 dates), seventh best in the A.L., and a road attendance of 2,210,881 (80 dates), ninth highest in the circuit. Home attendance marked the second straight season above the two million mark (2,519,063 in 1998), 16th time in club history and 14th highest in club history, while road attendance figures marked the seventh time over two million fans and fourth highest in club annals. Anaheim's total home and road attendance in 1999 (4,464,004) was the sixth highest in club history after setting the franchise record a year ago (4,753,452).

Anaheim set Edison Field bests for a night game (43,911, July 15 vs. Los Angeles), three-game series (127,446, July 15-17 vs. Los Angeles) and four-game series (137,081, April 30-May 3 vs. Chicago). The Angels season-high attendance at home was 43,911, July 15 vs. Los Angeles (Edison Field record), while the season-best on the road was 55,626, June 20 at New York. The club enjoyed three sellouts at Edison Field in 1999 after posting 10 in the inaugural season of the ballpark a year ago. The Angels' home attendance low was 16,165, Sept. 20 vs. Tampa Bay, while the lowest attendance on the road was 5,377, April 13 at Oakland.

The Angels established their single-game home attendance figure when 64,406 witnessed Game 1 of the 1982 ALCS against Milwaukee, Oct. 5.

During the ensuing 1983 campaign, the top two regular season crowds in club history were set when 63,132 watched the Angels host Kansas City, July 4, and 63,073 viewed the April 23 game against Baltimore.

Angels Hall of Fame

Bobby Grich, Jim Fregosi, Don Baylor, Rod Carew, Nolan Ryan and Jimmie Reese were the first six inductees into the Anaheim Angels Hall of Fame.

Grich, who retired following the American League Championship Series against Boston in 1986, was inducted Feb. 3, 1988. He is one of only two Angels (Brian Downing being the other) to participate in each of the club's three Western Division titles.

Grich officially became an Angel Nov. 24, 1976. The native of Muskegon, MI concluded his Angels career with a .269 average in 1,222 games including 154 home runs and 557 RBI. During his career, Grich compiled the following overall numbers: .266 average, 2,008 games, 6,890 at-bats, 1,033 runs, 1,833 hits, 224 home runs and 864 RBI.

One of California's most popular players, Grich became only the second player in club history to play 1,000 games-or-more (1,098) at one position, joining Fregosi who totaled 1,367 appearances at shortstop. Grich's .997 fielding percentage in 1985 established a major league record for second basemen.

On the date of his induction, Grich ranked among the top three on several Angels all-time lists, including games (third), at-bats (third - 4,100), runs (third - 601), home runs (second), runs batted in (second), extra-base hits (third - 357), hits (third - 1,103), doubles (third - 183) and total bases (third - 1,788).

In 1981, Grich recorded a career-high .304 average and tied Dwight Evans, Tony Armas and Eddie Murray for the A.L. home run derby (22 each). The feat made him the first second baseman to lead the league in home runs since Nap Lajoie of Philadelphia totaled 14 in 1901. He also became the first A.L. second baseman to lead in slugging since George Stirnweiss with the Yankees in 1945 (.476). During the '81 campaign, Grich compiled a career-best 21-game hitting streak (May 21-Aug. 19), the second longest in club annals.

In 1980, Grich was co-winner of the Owner's Trophy, symbolic of the club's Most Valuable Player as selected by the players.

Fregosi, a six-time Angels All-Star, was inducted May 17, 1989. He appeared with the Angels from 1961-71 as a player and then managed the club from June 1, 1978 through May 28, 1981. Fregosi guided the club to an 87-75 finish in 1978 and a second place tie prior to the memorable 1979 season when the Angels captured their first-ever Western Division title at 88-74. For his efforts, Fregosi was runner-up in balloting by the Associated Press for A.L. Manager of the Year. He finished with a 237-248 record managing the Angels (.489).

As a player, Fregosi's career spanned 18 major league seasons during which he registered a .265 lifetime average. He was originally acquired by the Angels Dec. 14, 1960 in the expansion draft from the Boston Red Sox.

Fregosi was voted the Angels Owner's Trophy three times and was a Gold Glove recipient in 1964.

At the time of his induction, Fregosi led on California's all-time lists in the following categories: games (1,429), at-bats (5,244), hits (1,408) and triples (70). In addition, he also ranked second in runs (691), doubles (219), extra-base hits (404) and total bases (2,112).

Baylor, the only Angel to win the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1979, was inducted on May 26, 1990. He appeared with the Angels from 1977-82. He was a member of the Angels first two Western Division Championships in 1979 and 1982. During his '79 MVP season, Baylor compiled a .296 average with 36 home runs and a league-leading 139 RBI. He also led the league in games played (162) and runs scored (120). His marks in games played, runs scored, RBI and total bases that season are also club single-season records. In the '82 American League Championship Series, he hit .294 with a grand slam and series-high 10 RBI.

Baylor's career spanned 19 major league seasons during which he registered a .260 lifetime average and 338 home runs. He was originally acquired by the Angels Nov. 16, 1976 as a free agent. With the Angels, he averaged 23 home runs and 87 RBI, while batting .262 in six seasons.

Baylor was voted the Owner's Trophy twice (1978 & 1979) and earned All-Star recognition as an outfielder in '79.

Upon his induction, Baylor ranked on California's All-Time list in the following categories: third in home runs (141), fourth in at-bats (3,105), runs (481), RBI (523) and total bases (1,390). In addition, he also ranked fifth in extra base hits (288), hits (813), doubles (140, tied with Carew) and stolen bases (89).

Carew was the 16th player in major league history to collect 3,000 hits (Aug. 4, 1985 vs. Minnesota). He was inducted into the Angels Hall of Fame, Aug. 6, 1991 and the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, July 21, 1991.

Carew appeared with the Angels from 1979-85. He was a member of California's first two Western Division Championship teams in 1979 and 1982. His finest season was 1983, when he established a club record for batting average at .339.

Carew's career spanned 19 major league seasons, the first 12 with Minnesota. He won seven batting titles (1969, 1972-75, 1977-78) and the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1977 when he hit .388 with 239 hits and 128 runs scored.

Carew was named "Rookie of the Year" by the BBWAA in 1967 and selected to the A.L. All-Star team 18 times (1967-84). He is the only Angel to start in five Mid-Summer Classics.

Originally acquired by the Angels from Minnesota, Feb. 3, 1979, Carew ranked 38th on baseball's All-Time lists in average (.328), tied for 35th in games (2,469), 31st in at-bats (9,315), 13th in hits (3,053) and sixth in singles (2,404) at the time of his induction. On California's All-Time list, he ranked first in career average (.314), seventh in games (834), sixth in at-bats (3,080), fifth in runs (474), fourth in hits (968), tied for sixth in doubles (140), tied for seventh in triples (22), 10th in RBI (282), ninth in extra base hits (180), seventh in total bases (1,206) and eighth in stolen bases (72).

Ryan, who became the 20th pitcher in major league history to win 300 games (July 31, 1990 at Milwaukee) and owns a major league record seven no-hitters and 5,714 strikeouts was inducted and had his uniform No. 30 retired, June 16, 1992.

Ryan appeared with the Angels from 1972-79, compiling a 138-121 record and 3.06 ERA in 291 games. Ryan tossed four of his no-hitters with the Angels and holds or shares 20 club records, including career wins, starts (288), complete games (156), innings pitched (2,182), shutouts (40) and strikeouts (2,416). In 1977, he was selected "A.L. Pitcher of the Year" by The Sporting News and named to its All-Star team. In 1973, Ryan established a major league record for strikeouts in a single season with 383. He was originally acquired by California, Dec. 10, 1971, along with pitcher Don Rose, outfielder Leroy Stanton and catcher Francisco Estrada in exchange for Jim Fregosi.

Ryan's career spanned 27 seasons, the most in major league history. He began his career with the New York Mets, posting a 29-38 record and 3.58 ERA in 105 games (74 starts) from 1966-71. Following eight seasons with California, he appeared with the Houston Astros from 1980-88, compiling a 106-94 mark and 3.13 ERA in 282 starts. He joined the Texas Rangers in 1989 and finished 51-39 with a 3.43 ERA in five seasons.

Ryan was named to eight All-Star teams (five with California) and appeared in five games, including as starting pitcher for the American League in 1979 in Seattle. He pitched two scoreless relief innings to win the 1989 game in Anaheim, becoming the oldest pitcher to win an All-Star game. Will be inducted into Baseball Hall of Fame, July 25, 1999.

Reese, whose 23 years in an Angels uniform equals longest in club history (Bobby Knoop), was inducted on Aug. 2, 1995.

A former roommate of Babe Ruth, Reese began his career as a batboy for the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League in 1917. He broke into baseball seven years later as a second baseman for the minor league Oakland Oaks.

Reese played one more year in the majors (1932 with St. Louis) before returning to the Pacific Coast League in 1933. In three major league seasons, he hit .278, including .345 mark in reserve role for the Yankees in 1930.

Reese played 12 seasons in the PCL (Oakland, 1924-29; Los Angeles, 1933-36 and San Diego, 1937-38) and was honored as all-time second baseman of the league. He set a career fielding record for total chances with 9,890 and led the PCL in fielding three times (1927, 1929 & 1934).

On March 30, 1972, Reese joined the California Angels coaching staff. During his 23 years, he built a reputation for being the most prolific fungo hitter in baseball. In 1989, Reese was selected by the late Commissioner Bart Giamatti to throw out the ceremonial first pitch for the 60th All-Star Game at Anaheim Stadium. In 1992, he was named honorary captain of the American League All-Stars at the contest in San Diego.

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or any part of it, or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs in a tie game. Individual player performances are official and entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE:
Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES
(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:
(1) A curfew imposed by law;
(2) A time limit permissible under league rules;
(3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under the control of the home club (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment);
(4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on;
(5) Weather, if the game is called when an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:
(i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.
(ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of curfew, weather, or time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12 (a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:
NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five(5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12 (a) (5) (i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:
(1) Immediately preceding the next single game between the two clubs on the same grounds; or
(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or
(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the ground of the opposing club, if possible;
(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or
(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.
(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he has been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called when an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:
(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.
(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

DISABLED LISTS: REGULAR DISABLED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days. No limit on number of players that may be on at one time. EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity—60 calendar days. No limit on number of players on list at one time but may only be used when club is at maximum limit of 40 players under control. Players on 60-day list do not count against 40-man. Players placed on this list after Aug. 1st shall remain there for the balance of the season. Day 1 is following player's last game appearance. REINSTATEMENT may be made beginning Day 16 or 61 respectively; after minimum period has expired player may be reinstated at any time (except in certain "Emergency"cases...see above).

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEWS: No inning of an American League game can start after 1:00 a.m., local time. Any inning started prior to 1:00 a.m. can be completed. Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season between two teams in each of the cities.

Any game, regardless of length, called because of the time curfew, becomes a suspended game and must be completed from the exact point of interruption before the teams play their next scheduled game against each other.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. (i.e. 5:01 p.m., or later), will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:00 p.m., and is delayed by rain or for any other reasons, it will be considered a day game.

However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same date and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day and one night game, and will not be included in the doubleheader statistics.

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: A batting champion must have 502 or more actual plate appearances. (the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games). If, however, there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at bats, then the player shall be awarded the batting championship.

EARNED-RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the earned-run average championship a pitcher must pitch at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest earned-run average.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided: (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of standings from the closest opponent.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON & LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

CONSECUTIVE STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak, if a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

"SAVE" RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.
(b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE: A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner who in turn becomes the designated hitter while still in the game. The designated hitter may be used defensively and the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposition changes pitchers.

SCORING RULE ON PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

A substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter is both a pinch hitter and a Designated Hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a Designated Hitter only.

EARNED RUNS RULE: The determination of earned-run is as follows:

An earned run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls; and the benefit of doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.

Until 1969, the reliever could not be charged with an earned run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequently gave up in that inning. Now, runs scored by batters who reach base off the reliever are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, shared as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against a team and the sum total of the earned-runs charged against in the individual pitchers of that team.

DOCTORED BAT: A batter is out for illegal action when he uses or attempts to use a bat that, in the umpire's judgement, has been altered or tampered with in such a way to improve the distance factor or cause an unusual reaction on the baseball. This includes bats that are filled, flat-surfaced, nailed, hollowed, grooved or covered with a substance such as paraffin, wax, etc. No advancement on the bases will be allowed and any out or outs made during a play shall stand. In addition to being called out, the player shall be ejected from the game and may be subject to additional penalties as determined by his League President (Rule 6.06d).

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR": 172 days constitutes a full year in the major leagues.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: is credited for each day the player appears on an active roster or major league disabled list or suspended list.
In the case of a player called up from the minor leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.
In the case of a major league player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.
In the case of a player sent down to the minor leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.
In the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date player was notified of his release.
In the case of a player designated for release or assignment or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation, through the date of the actual assignment or the date player was notified of unconditional release.
For a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as of the earliest scheduled opener, without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.
Is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year," though the season is actually 183 days long.
Is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totaling 20 days or more during a single season.

Items of Interest

ROOKIE QUALIFICATION: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-man limit (excluding time in military service and time on the disabled list).

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to MLB. A local panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services and made up of local community representatives will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Alan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

John Hancock is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the title sponsor of The John Hancock All-Star FanFest, an interactive "Baseball Heaven on Earth" held in conjunction with MLB's All-Star Game.

Tempe Diablo Stadium

On April 1, 1992, the Angels defeated San Diego, 3-1 at Angels Stadium in the final exhibition game of spring training. The contest was historic in that it marked the final spring training game for the Angels in Palm Springs, CA, their Cactus League home for 32 years.

On July 25, 1991, the Angels signed a 25-year lease (including two five-year options) with the city of Tempe, Arizona, making Tempe Diablo Stadium their home spring training facility until the year 2017. The complex had been the spring home of the Seattle Mariners since its 1977 expansion and previously housed the Seattle Pilots and Milwaukee Brewers (1969-71).

Owned and operated by the City of Tempe Parks and Recreation Department, Tempe Diablo Stadium has been completely rebuilt and renovated with the combined efforts of HOK Sports Facilities Group and the Angels. Groundbreaking for the "new-look" stadium took place, April 22, 1992 and cost an estimated $5.8 million to complete.

Two-thirds of the funding was provided by Maricopa County and one-third by the City of Tempe. All revenues from food and beverage concessions, parking, souvenirs and in-stadium advertising are shared equally by the City of Tempe and the Angels, while the City receives 20% of revenues from ticket sales.

In addition to the stadium, the complex includes two-and-a-half practice fields. Dimensions of the stadium are 340' down the left field line; 360' down the right field line; 400' to the left and right-center power alleys and 420' to center with an outfield fence height of eight feet. The playing surface is Bermuda natural grass.

Tempe Diablo Stadium

In-stadium capacity at Tempe Diablo Stadium is 7,285, with 9,785 tickets available for each game (including seating for the disabled, lawn seats and temporary bleachers).

Parking for the stadium includes two parking lots (east and west) with 1,300 paved parking spaces, including two disabled entry ways as well as field and service access.

Dedication ceremonies for Tempe Diablo Stadium took place Feb. 27, 1993, with the Angels' first home game, March 7, 1993 against Oakland.

While the Angels will utilize their facility in Tempe, the club's minor league program will continue to operate from Gene Autry Park in Mesa, AZ. Dedicated March 1, 1984, the three-diamond complex serves as the spring home of the club's minor league affiliates and the Angels' Arizona Instructional League entry.

Since the inception of the organization in 1961, California had played its spring training contests at Angels Stadium in Palm Springs. The facility was formerly called the Polo Grounds until switching its name in 1964.

On December 19, 1965, the Angels signed an agreement to hold spring training in Holtville, CA, located approximately 10 miles east of El Centro. The club annually spent 10 days to two weeks at the four–diamond complex from 1966 through 1979, before returning on a full–time basis to Palm Springs in 1980.

In 1982 and 1983, California divided spring headquarters between Casa Grande, AZ and Palm Springs.

Upcoming Hall of Fame Candidates

First-year candidates for Hall of Fame/BBWAA election in 2001 include Steve Bedrosian, Ron Darling, Kirk Gibson, Don Mattingly, Kirby Puckett, Dave Righetti, Dave Stewart, Andy Van Slyke, Lou Whitaker, and former Angel Dave Winfield, among others. Notable upcoming Hall of Fame eligibles to have worn Angels uniforms include: One-time Angel Eddie Murray in 2003.

Significant Angels' Artifacts at the Hall

- Bat and ball used by Rod Carew in his 3000th career hit.
- Entire uniform worn by Rod Carew on August 4, 1985 at Anaheim Stadium when he achieved his 3,000th career hit, including his hat, jersey, pants, socks, spikes, and batting gloves.
- Helmet worn by Reggie Jackson when he hit his 500th career home run on September 17, 1984 at Anaheim Stadium.
- There have been seven no-hitters by Angels' pitchers, including Bo Belinsky (1962), Clyde Wright (1970), Mike Witt (1984), and Nolan Ryan (1973 (2), 1974, 1975). A ball from each no-hitter and four Angels' hats from Ryan, are part of a "No-Hit" display which contains a ball from every no-hitter since 1940.
- Bat and ball used by Garret Anderson to hit the 124th grand slam in 1996, a single-season Major League record.
- Cap worn by Angels' Shigetoshi Hasegawa in 1997, when he earned the 1st win by a Japanese pitcher in A.L. history.
- Jim Edmonds bat used by all nine batters in the starting lineup on August 4, 1999.

Notes From the Hall of Fame

The Hall of Fame opened on June 12, 1939. The first election occurred in 1936 and its inaugural class included Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson, Babe Ruth and Honus Wagner. Not including the 2000 Veterans Committee election, the Hall of Fame is comprised of 244 members (59 living): 182 major leaguers, 23 pioneers/executives, 16 Negro Leaguers, 15 managers and eight umpires.

Research Assistance

The Hall of Fame is pleased to provide assistance in baseball research and members of the media are encouraged to utilize this valuable baseball resource when ever necessary, by calling the Public Relations department at (607) 547-0215, or the Library Reference desk at (607) 547-0330.
